Final Rites For Slain Newarker, Leon Fort, Sr.

Emanuel Church Of God In Christ Scene Of Services

THE LATE LEON FORT, SR.

Slaying Of Popular Bartender And Bar Owner, Shocks Newark

NEWARK — Wednesday afternoon the Emanuel Church of God in Christ, Reeson street was the scene of final rites for popular bartender Leon (Shaky) Fort, Sr., 36 of 646 North 19th Street who was the victim of a 19 gunpoint slaying and blast following an argument with a customer late Friday of last week.

The slaying also took the life of Julian (Yucky) Davis, owner of Dorian Club at 56 Waverly Avenue who had been employed at the past 14 years. Funeral services for Davis were held Sunday noon from 2 P.M. to 4 P.M. at the funeral home, 257 Chambers Avenue.

A crowd of more than 500 persons filled the main auditorium of Emanuel Church of God in Christ, representing thousands of local and out-of-town friends and relatives of the slain bartender. Services were held at 2 P.M. and continued until 4 P.M. when the body was interred in the cemetery at 1000 North 19th Street.

A Mass funeral service for Fort was held at 10 A.M. at the funeral home, 257 Chambers Avenue. The service was held in the presence of many friends and relatives of the slain bartender.

Iron Workers Jim Crow Hiring Case To Be Heard In Newark

NEWARK — The name of the Newark Coordinating Council must be ever remembered by local Negroes for its efforts and fight for race job opportunity and equal hiring rights, or there no doubt would not be a public hearing to be held Nov. 30, involving employment discrimination.

The New Jersey Division on Civil Rights announced last week that such a hearing would be held in the Council Chambers of Newark City Hall.

The International Association of Bridge, Structural and Ornamental Ironworkers including general contractors in the ironworkers industry in the North Jersey area are involved. The complaint was filed by Rutgers, the State University, and the Board of Trustees of Schools for Industrial Education, which administers Newark College of Engineering and Newark Technical School.

Edward Andrade, chief negotiator for the Newark Coordinating Council last month in a statement declared, "We reaffirm our determination and commitment to the people of Newark to end job Jim Crow at the Rutgers, NCE and other building sites."

The New Jersey Division on Civil Rights announced Wed. that it will hold a public hearing into allegations of discrimination filed against the several locals of the International Association of Bridge, Structural and Ornamental Ironworkers and several contractors in the ironworkers industry in the North Jersey area by Rutgers, the State University, and the Board of Trustees of Schools for Industrial Education, which administers Newark College of Engineering and Newark Technical School.

The Ironworkers Joint Apprenticeship Committee, contractors and unions, are specifically charged with violating the New Jersey Law Against Discrimination because of race. According to the complaint, historical patterns of membership selection by the unions and the unions' hiring hall agreements with the contractors, in which the union is the sole supplier of labor in the industry, have resulted in a situation where there are no non-whites employed in outdoor structural jobs. The papers filed with the Division also allege that educational and testing requirements for admission to the apprenticeship program, as well as methods of marking and allocation of points to different parts of the testing program, bear "no reasonable relationship" to the skills and abilities required by the ironworkers trade and are geared to maintaining the all-white racial composition of the unions.

Burrell Ives Humphreys, Esq., an attorney from Wayne, New Jersey, will serve as Hearing Examiner. Attorney General Arthur J. Sills has appointed Charles Danzig, Esq., of Newark, as special counsel to the Division in this matter. The hearing will be open to the public.

took place at the Cotton Club about 2 p.m. and according to reports by Detective L.A. Joseph Kinney, veteran director of Newark Police Homeless Squad, Eartha Pugh, 43 year old unemployed construction worker became embroiled in an argument with both "Shaky", Mr. Fort Sr., and "Yoody", Mr. Rabin, owner of the tavern and bottle goods department over the question of making change of a $50 bill he is alleged to having had.

It is reported that Pugh was ejected from the tavern when an argument ensued following refusal to change the big bill.

Events leading to the ejection of Pugh, were not made clear. According to one published report Pugh, returned to the tavern after being ejected and the double slaying followed including the wounding of George (Dr. Buzzard) Ivory, 53, of 529 1/2 High street who is recovering at Newark City Hospital.

The popular Mr. Fort Sr., was said to have been shot in his left side. He was said to have been standing behind the counter of the bottle goods department of the Cotton Club tavern.

Mr. Ivory who was sitting at the bar suffered pellet wounds. According to reports, Pugh who is being held by Newark Police on a charge with killing the two men, claims he suffered head injuries before leaving the tavern. When apprehended following the shooting, Pugh revealed to police that his memory was not clear about his returning to the Cotton Club. It was pointed out that he said he wanted to get Shaky.

According to a report on the turn of events, the alleged killer upon his return to the tavern met "Yoody" the first victim and then wasted no time in blasting "Shaky" who was working behind the counter of the bottle goods department. The unidentified customer who summoned Officers Del Vecchio and Kelly after following the alleged killer for several blocks is to be commended. The patrolman put Pugh under arrest at 14th avenue and 11th street. Police said a shot gun was found on the front seat of the car.

Several years ago before the building of Southern Avenue, Quinlan street, then known as the late Father (Shaky) was the well known partner of attorney Myron P. Quinlan, co-owner of the then famous Hill Tavern, the Hill-South then located on the corner of West and West Kinney streets.

The pall bearers were: James Killebrew, Herbert Hobson, Richard Moore, Carl Montgomery, John Wilson and John Hill.

The late Mr. Fort Sr., leaves his wife, Mildred, a son, Leon Jr., who is in service; a mother, Mrs. Mae Fort, father, Harry Fort, two sisters, Mrs. Dorothy Howard and Mrs. Marie Moultrie, two brothers, Harold and Will, Entertainment, Otendale Cemetery, Bloomfield.

Discrimination Is Removed From Mississippi TV

JACKSON, Miss. — Last week the Federal Communications Commission, acting on a complaint by Negroes and white liberals in Mississippi, ordered WLBT-TV and its sister radio station WJDX, to stop racial discrimination in their programming.

The F.C.C. ruling, which will be debated again next spring, may affect television programming in other Southern states.

Since May, Negroes have been added not only to the noon devotional program on WLBT-TV, but also to a Saturday afternoon high school show called "Teen Tempo." Two groups of Negroes were given 30 minutes each last summer to urge the adoption of a state constitutional amendment to relax voter qualifications. A Negro was hired two months ago for a Saturday morning music and sports show on WLBT. Negroes now are addressed as "Mr." and "Mrs." on both WLBT-TV and WJDX.

News New Orleans — Perhaps most important, the Negroes were asked to represent 40 per cent of WLBT-TV's voting population, news is now presented without the slightest Negro bias that once characterized it. Before the complaint to the F.C.C., it was not uncommon to hear at the end of a weather report, "Tomorrow, cloudy with demonstrators."

Fred L. Beard, the general manager of the station, said that the station had been in the result of the F.C.C. ruling.

The F.C.C. began investigating the two stations after the violence accompanying the assassination of Mr. Martin Luther King at the University of Mississippi.

Africans Try To Defeat White Africans

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. — In a resolution submitted here last Thursday to the Security Council, African members of the United Nations called for action by land, sea and air forces, including demonstrations, blockades and "other operations," if economic measures prove inadequate to overthrow the Rhodesian Government of Prime Minister Ian D. Smith.

The African members of UN called for a complete cutoff of commerce and communications between Rhodesia and other nations.

The Smith Government asked independence from Britain on Thursday of last week after long and fruitless negotiations. Britain refused to grant independence so long as the colony's 250,000 whites refused to grant the million blacks a larger voice in the Government.

In London, Britain moved to declare the Rhodesian action void and to assume governmental powers for the colony.

African leaders, including Nkrumah, Nasser, and others, called for a complete cutoff of commerce and communications between Rhodesia and other nations.

The resolution, which was adopted by a vote of 12 to 0, called for a complete cutoff of commerce and communications between Rhodesia and other nations. The resolution also called for a complete cutoff of commerce and communications between Rhodesia and other nations.

When a beautiful girl sings the blues, how do you lower the temperature?

There's no insulating yourself against a girl singing soulfully about love gone astray. You're going to be seared. All you can do is try to lower the heat.

In New York's Negro communities, where you'll hear some of the hottest blues anywhere, people usually cool things off with a Rheingold.

And the same thing happens among New York City's Greeks and Italians and French. After they hear their own brand of searing love song, they usually cool off with a Rheingold.

The fact is that in New York City, where there are more kinds of people than in any other city in the world, more people drink Rheingold Extra Dry Beer than any other beer.

Why do so many different people pick one beer, Rheingold? We don't know. But we must be doing something right. Rheingold

"DOC" WILSON THE MAN WHO KNOWS

It's very hard to be a man who knows that I'm sick of working all day and walking all night. I am not giving my money to any man. I just use it for the education of my children. Please hear my story in person then help me for I am not happy living a double life.

ANSWER:

I will arrange to see you and I hope for your sake that I can do all the things you believe I can do. One thing is certain: I will take you off the streets at night and show you the successful highway. Whether you take it or not depends on you.

Dear Doc Wilson:

I heard about you from someone who knows about my condition. I have been "hid-up" for more than 30 years. Someone put something down for me and I must have stepped in it. All of my children are in a bad fix too. If you could only take it off of us I would do anything you say. Over the years I have seen everybody who is supposed to know, yet this awful condition remains on us. I have no faith in anyone, but I am still trying. So many people say you are the Root King, that you must be. If you are, can anything be done to help us.

ANSWER:

It is so. I can remove any condition. Takes time for a difficult one, but it can be done. Examination is necessary.

Dear Doc Wilson:

I am in Rochester, N. Y. — I am a subscriber. My job is a constant grind, so I have very

There is somewhere in every brain the energy that will get you out of the rut and put you high up on the mountain of success if you will only use the energy.

You know that gasoline in the engine of an automobile doesn't move the car until the spark comes. Energy works with Hope, Self-Confidence and Determination.

VICTORY BLESSING

The triumphing of the wicked is short. — Job 20:5.

Dear Doc Wilson:

Please remove this choking from my throat. And stop whatever this is from biting my toes so I can get some rest. Something just stings my toes like somebody was sticking pins in them, then the pain goes up my legs into my back and stops in my throat where it chokes me for hours. Please help me. Doc why can't I hit like the others I read about. I can't even get a letter from you and I've been waiting since February. My husband takes the money and spends it elsewhere before taking care of the home. If he gives me anything it is the smallest to do the biggest job with which is impossible. Stand by me in my hour of need.

ANSWER:

Your needs are many but I will do all I can as quickly as I can. Do a bit of praying.

Der Doc Wilson:

I was happy to read your column in the paper which brought delight to my eyes for my friends were raving about you and what great wisdom you possess. I have no money, so if you can't help me, my only hope, my last chance is dead. I don't want to take my own life, and I know

I am available.

ANSWER:

Saturday the 24th will be one of my busiest appointment days so call me on Friday if you wish to be included.

Dear Doc Wilson:

My husband and his Georgia relatives believe so much in voodooism that they frighten me. My husband is on his vacation down there now. Before he left we had quite an argument. Yesterday when I got ready to wash my underwear, I missed two pairs of panties. Last night when he called, I asked him about them, and he said: yes, I brought them down here with me. I said: For what? And his reply was: I wanted my grandmother to look them over because I intend to bring you a surprise. Doc: I am half out of my mind. His people can do things. I've heard them talk. What is she looking the panties over for, and what will he bring back to me?

ANSWER:

Maybe they're short of krotussocks, maybe grandma is looking them over to see if they are strong enough to carry the load, because the only thing he could bring you would be "Two Panties of Georgia Peasants." (Don't let 'em scare you). They don't know how to do nothing.

Another "Lowe" Treatment

By GEORGE THOMPSON

Substituting for O. WILLIS BROWN, Editor-Publisher

The above caption is intended only to remind the many friends and associates of Rev. Richard H. Lowe whom they have come to respect and love and above all those who try and understand his many deep emotions, of his expressive "Letter Writings."

Following receipt of this letter (undated) referring to my editorial appearing in the New Jersey Herald News, issue of November 6, 1965, I saw at once here was an opportunity to create an incident in good fellowship.

I believe the intent of the Rev. Lowe's letter is based on a desire and search for TRUTH. I believe Rev. Lowe bears no malice or displeasure toward me or anyone. I believe if Rev. Lowe continues to read the writings of men of Good Will, Love, and Brotherhood, he will in time become more concerned, giving study and depth of thought to his feelings of expression, before he succumbs to a recurrence of an urge to just write "Another Letter."

The contents of the letter are as follows:

"My Dear Mr. Thompson:

I have read with amazement, your statement in the column of the Herald News, usually reserved for the comment of the Editor, of the issue of Nov. 6, 1965: re. "Why the Blow, UCC.UCC."

YOU, perhaps are one of the very very minority, 'FEW', who share any scintilla of your Erroneous view, with respect to the action of the Investigating Committee of the City Council of Newark, and their QUITE Correct Conclusion. I have been waiting patiently over the months to see if at some time, the Investigating Bodies of the City Council, and of the State Legislature would come forth with some logical and Legal answers to this matter of the 'Anti-Poverty Process in the State of New Jersey' and with particular reference to the HIGH HANDED AUTONOMY of the 'UNITED COMMUNITY CORPORATION,' aided and Abetted, by Our Hoped to be, SOON EX-MAYOR, of Newark.

The redundant statement of the fact that Mr. Addonizio is a Member of an American minority group, and the equally personal opinion of Yourself, ALONE, with respect to the alleged Youth and Brilliance, of Cyril TYSON, IMPORTEE from New York, have absolutely no bearing upon the Legality of the Statute, under which authority, the Decision was made. (Article 8, section 3, of the N. J. Constitution) Certainly — even you, can have no Quarrel with the unholding of the Constitution of New Jersey or of the United States — or are you one of those people who believe that the Constitution, should mean one thing to one people, and another to all Others.

C. Willard Heckel, is no more interested in Negroes, or the Poor, per se, than is Cyril Tyson, identifiable under any of the Labels, which you attach to Him, premised upon no identifiable Standard of Measurement. THE REAL Truth in the matter is that, THE NEGROES OF NEWARK ARE THE PROSCRIBED VICTIMS OF TAXATION WITHOUT REPRESENTATION! So think the matter over.

Respectfully yours
RICHARD A. LOWE"

P. O. Branches Get Holiday

Postmaster Joseph J. Benucci said the Newark Post Office, affiliated stations and branches in the city, will be closed on December 25, 26, and 27.

1605. No mail deliveries will be made by carriers, but special delivery mail will be delivered as usual throughout the day.

"How glorious it is to be privileged to know we can bring into outer expression and into materialization anything you can imagine; if it is good, if it is evil or what not. Even the earth itself was void and without form, you all have read, but the earth could not be practical or profitable so long as it was void; it was impractical and unprofitable. Because of the voidness of the earth it was necessary for God to speak the earth into visibility by which all living creatures can be considered under the earth as the creation of the earth; in other words, we speak of the earth as mother — of all material thing that produced themselves and come forth into expression by the earth.

Hence the invisible earth was impractical, unprofitable and was good for nothing until God said, let dry land appear.

Like today God is still separating. He is also saying to you today believe on me and in the word. He is still separating me righteous. From the unrighteous. He might have universalize Heaven for all who would believe in His word: He said let there be light; and there was light.

This light we can find in Christ — through His love, you can never fail.

This light one never die! This light of peace, the one can never be understood! This light one never more walk in darkness.

March Of Dimes Holds Meeting

The annual organizational meeting of the Essex County March of Dimes will be held November 28rd, at Military Park Hotel, Newark, county "Dimes" Chairman Richard F. McMahon, Jr., announced.

At the meeting, scheduled for 6:30 p. m., key leaders from throughout Essex will plan the annual campaign against birth defects to be conducted during the month of January.

Arnold Feldman, M. D. of Maplewood is Director of the March of Dimes supported Birth Defects Special Treatment Center located in Babes Hospital, Newark. Dr. Feldman will describe recent advances in techniques for the care of babies born with life threatening defects. He will tell the local leaders how important their efforts have been in creating the "home" at the "Center" which makes it possible to save lives and build tiny bodies which would have been lost fortunate only a few years ago.

Succumb only to them who give you the right to succumb.

Long known as the annual of the Essex County March of Dimes, the 1966 year, which began last year, will close this year, over 40,000 cases.

General session speakers include Dr. Oscar F. Berkey, director of their services at Livingston University School of Education, St. Albans, Vermont. Don't stop the World, Dr. Murray Bookchin, a psychologist who writes a syndicated newspaper column, on "Humanism and the Future of Man." Dr. Frederick M. Rauschenberg, New Jersey's Commissioner of Education, and Harold C. Garfield, of Middletown Twp., NJEA president.

Earl Brown Asks For Broad Look To Aid Negroes

NEW YORK — Earl Brown, chairman of the New York City Commission on Human Rights, declared here last week that there must be offered a comprehensive approach to the solution of problems that Negroes face in employment, housing and education.

The First Paid Chairman

Mr. Brown, a Negro, was appointed by Mayor Wagner as the commission's first paid chairman more than four months ago. He receives $25,000 a year and Brown, who succeeded Earl H. Lomax as Mr. Lomax's successor, said he had not yet received Mayor Wagner's salary. "One sign is to appoint a Negro as chairman," he said.

GARDEN STATE IN THE SPOTLIGHT

Dr. Edith Gann long time Newark dweller, principal and clinical psychologist is a globe trotting specialist and was among members of the International Council of Psychologists who went on a world tour. Dr. Gann is a long time friend of Graham Crackers who recommended her for membership in ICP in Washington during a meeting of the American Psychological Association some years back. Dr. Gann is one of the most widely traveled of Newark educators and has a great heritage.

Dr. Gann has reported on her professional visits in the current Newsletter of International Council of Psychologists. She is chairman of the ICP committee on Relations with UNESCO and the Institute of International Education.

Governor Hughes recently opened the states new Cultural Center which has set a record in the East.

The $7.2 million Cultural Center complex at the state capital in Trenton, including a library, museum, auditorium and planetarium is a monument to the intercultural efforts of members of the Garden State.

Meanwhile the Governor's wife has lauded the role played by women in the Garden state in all phases of government and community activity. Upsala College in East Orange has been asked to furnish applicants for the Foreign Affairs Scholars Program of Howard University which is designed to prepare talented Negro students and other minorities for careers in Foreign Service and other international governmental positions. Those interested may secure applications (students) from Howard University, Washington, D. C., or contact Donald McKee, Upsala College Professor at Beck Hall for particulars. The Upsala Gazette is stressing the opportunity for the forty students who are selected throughout the nation for the program.

During the black out the famed Times was printed at a plant of the Newark Evening News which cooperated making its facilities available at the Market Street plant. The two-state operation was begun an hour after it became apparent that the power failure would not end in time for Times to get out its 96-page paper as scheduled. Cooperation is the key-word for the press which girds its loins for nationwide emergencies and solving problems.

THE MAIL BAG JAMMED WITH ITEMS OF INTEREST FOR READERS

The mail pouch is tugged full of appointments, progress and other reader interest items.

Joseph Deitch has been named Director of Alumni Relations and Development at Cornell University Medical College where he brings his long experience in college and university public relations, development, alumni and publications. Indeed Mr. Deitch has an impressive background which has been followed with interests during his tenure at Teachers College, Columbia University and more recently in the development program of Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts here he was Director of Publications. "Graham Crackers" is also a member of the Education Writers Association of which Mr. Deitch served as secretary-treasurer for some nine years. The appointee of Dr. John E. Deitrick, Dean is welcome aboard his new facility.

Dance Magazine has placed at our disposal the handsome November issue which carries on the cover Yuriko, gifted dancer-choreographer, a member of Martha Graham's Company. Martha Graham has returned to New York City for the first time since 1963 in the longest season she has ever given. The Witch of Endor features a talented Negro artist Gus Solomons, Jr. as Samuel. With other top stars of color Mary Hinkson, Clive Thomas and Matt Turney in the United Nations in Dance berth holding forth at the 54th Street Theatre in New York. Teachers in modern and other dance forms should take their students. Meanwhile those unable to attend will find a wealth of material in Dance Magazine and Dance News of stimulating reading in the performing arts.

An invitation to attend the Mulberry Street PAL Center during the visit of Princess Margaret and her husband Lord Snowdon, has been extended by U. S. Attorney Robert M. Morgenthau, PAL President.

Some forty-seven students received Eleanor Roosevelt Scholarships from CORE Scholarship Education and Defense Fund of which Shelley Appleton is executive director. These students have demonstrated leadership ability in the field of civil rights and their need arises from their civil rights activity. Juilliard School of Music is in the spotlight again. Alan M. Kriegsmann, has been appointed Assistant to the President of the Juilliard Composer Peter Mennin. In his new post Kriegsmann will be in charge of the school's publications, press and public relations, among other assignments. The appointee is a gifted artist and should have much to contribute to this musical center.

The School of American Ballet will join Juilliard at Lincoln Center.

URBAN LEAGUE HONORS O'NEAL AT OPPORTUNITY DINNER

Equity President Frederick O'Neill will be among the honorees to receive the 1965 National Urban League's Equal Opportunity Day Award at a dinner at the Waldorf-Astoria Thursday along with Joseph L. Block, Chairman of Inland Steel. Both men are to be honored for their important contributions to furthering the League's goal of equal opportunity for all Americans. Secretary of State Dean Rusk is to be the principal speaker. Fred O'Neill was among notables at the White House, on the occasion of the signing of the historic Arts and Humanities Bill. The Women's Editor of the New Jersey Herald News has followed the career of Mr. O'Neill around the globe, in person and via the pen. He is the father of the American Negro Theatre and daddy to the numerous (drama wise) young actors like Politeer, Bellafonte and others whose foot prints are indelible in the sands of the theatre around the world. Graham Crackers will be covering for this paper and return to readers our coverage.

PROGRESS IN MOTION CULTURE ON UPSURGE

Equity will be moving its quarters soon to 165 West 46th Street also known as 1560 Broadway, with 1966 finding the organization in a new home after nine years in its present one. Another era is passing with progress and efficiency matters of import.

Vinie Burrows who distinguished herself in the premiere performance of (along with Pianist Elma Adams) "Echoes from Africa," an AMSAC presentation is set to appear for the NAACP in Baltimore. This writer expects to cover the star whose husband Dean Harrison is a staffer on one of Youth Opportunity Projects in Newark. Mr. Harrison holds both his bachelors and masters degrees from New York University and is an experienced social and youth worker.

The Eleanor Roosevelt Story, a brilliant film has opened at the Cinema Rendezvous Theatre. The ninety minute film has been released by London Film Organization through Allied Artist. Houghton Mifflin is also publishing the Eleanor Roosevelt Story in book form. The documentary of the former first lady is narrated by her old friend Archibald MacLeish, who wrote the screenplay of the beloved late Mrs. FDR, a woman of strength, independence and world impact.

A memorial exhibition of paintings and drawings by Rico Lebrun, noted American painter, has opened at the Art Gallery of the American Academy of Arts and Letters, 111 East 67th Street, New York City. The exhibition will continue through September 1st.

Tennis star Arthur Ashe, recently retained as Youth Market Consultant for The Coca-Cola Company, confers with Charles W. Adams, Vice President, while visiting the Atlanta-based soft drink firm. The 23-year-old Virginian, who is the first negro ever to play on the U.S. Davis Cup Team, will advise on the merchandising of the Company's products in the youth market. Ashe is currently working for his degree in marketing at UCLA in Los Angeles.

Newark Qualifies For U. S. Aid To Bolster Economy

AUSTIN, Texas.—In a White House announcement last week, the city of Newark and the counties of Atlantic, Cape May, Cumberland, Monmouth, Ocean and Passaic qualified for loans and grants by the Federal Government to aid locally developed programs to shore up their sagging economies. The announcement included 1,280 counties, cities, Indian reservations and labor market areas.

The total population of the qualifying areas is about 50 million.

These sections have more than their share of the nation's unemployment. With 20 per cent of the work force, they have 30 per cent of the jobless. Last year, 1.1 million of the 3.8 million unemployed lived in the 1,200 areas.

The areas were designated by the Economic Development Administration of the Department of Commerce under the new Public Works and Economic Development Act of 1965. This authorizes the expenditure of $3.5 billion in the next five years to aid sections that are not keeping pace economically with the rest of the nation.

The act provides for grants and loans for public works and facilities needed to support existing industry and to encourage new businesses. It authorizes loans for industrial and commercial projects that will create jobs. It also provides for the guarantee of loans for working capital, technical assistance, and aid to industrial development centers and regional planning groups.

teach-ins, in street demonstrations and in draft card burning.

All of the letters and articles, he asserted, show "a very narrow conception of loyalty, an intolerance of criticism, of free inquiry, of open debate and a dislike of dissent and deviationism."

Freedom Lost

"All ideas to which they are opposed are branded as subversive," Dr. McCracken observed. "They take the position that there is no right to be wrong and they are positive that they know what is right and what is wrong.

"What these people are opposing besides Communism is something to which Communism is opposed," he said, "the right of every person to have a mind of his own, to listen to his own coincidence and to voice his beliefs freely and without fear."

There is yet another front in the battle for the control of men's minds, Dr. McCracken said.

"In an age of mass media, automation and computers, the tendency is toward standardization," he declared.

"There are powerful pressures pushing us in the direction of conformity and passivity," he said. "An ominous trend is the developing concept of human engineering, of scientific ability to control thought with precision."

"If thought is controlled with precision — and much of it is — how free are we going to be in the American sense of being able to direct our own lives?"
